12 The Order passed in 1908 was that a permanent monthly Travelling Allowance to be styled 'Staff Allowance' was to be granted in lieu of all travelling allowances for journeys within the Province, to Ootacamund or to Madras and to other places outside the Province when in attendance on His Highness. It was also ordered that in the rare cases in which an officer was deputed on duty otherwise than in attendance on His Highness to places in British India other than Madras or Ootacamund, he would as a special case be entitled to travelling allowances at the rates admissible under the Mysore Service Regulations in addition to the permanent Staff Allowance. The Staff Allowance being in lieu of travelling allowances, the officer in receipt of it have themselves to bear the expenses of travelling which they may have to incur on occasions and the question for consideration is on what occasion they should be reimbursed in addition to the Staff allowance for travelling expenses incurred by them, and on what occasions not so reimbursed, the Staff Allowance itself being the reimbursement in such cases.

I think three principles underlie the order of 1908, viz.,

(1) Travellin

(1) Travelling allowance in addition to Staff Allowance is not admissible to an officer for any journey within the Province, or to Ootacamund or Madras outside the Province. No travelling allowance appears to be admissible for journeys within the Province or to Madras and Ootacamund outside of it whether the officer travels in attendance on His Highness or not, or whether he travels in a special train or in an ordinary train. Any travelling expenses he may have himself to incur for these journeys, are I think, intended to be met from the Staff Allowance. In his note dated 1st February 1918, Mr. Mirza proposes to exclude Madras from this arrangement. The reason for excluding it is however not stated.

(2) Travelling allowance in addition to Staff Allowance is not admissible to an officer for journeys to places other than Ootacamund or Madras outside the Province when he is in attendance on His Highness. Mr. Mirza considers that when an officer travels outside the Province in ordinary trains, though in attendance on His Highness, he should be given ordinary travelling allowance in addition to the Staff Allowance. I think his view of the matte is reasonable, as I believe that the Staff Allowance is intended only to cover expenses of travelling wi within the Province or to Madras and Ootacamund whic an officer has himself to incur and not of travellin to other places outside the State.

(3) Travelling allowance in addition to Staff Allowance is admissible to an officer when he is deputed on duty otherwise than in attendance on His Highness the Maharaja to places in British India other than Madras or Ootacamund. No change is proposed in respect of this principle. I think the order of 27th January 1908 may be amended to make the above points clear.

Mr. Mirza also ~~proposes~~ Counsels that the sanction of Government under Article 41 (b) M.S.R. to journeys outside the Province by officers on the Staff of His Highness the Maharaja is unnecessary. I agree with hi in this point also. ~~The~~ Such journeys are performed under the orders of H.H. and it is enough to record this fact on travelling allowance bills. In the case of officers whose travelling allowance bills require countersignature, e.g., Assistant Private Secretary to His Highness, this fact may be recorded by the countersigning officer - Private Secretary to His Highness and in the case of The Huzur Secretary to His Highness whose bills do not require counter signature, it is enough if the fact is recorded by himself on the bills.

Dear Mr. Hiriyannaiya,

With reference to my Note on the subject of Staff Allowance, which I sent to you with my D.O. letter No.1557 dated 1st February 1918, I write to say that it seems to me that a Single First Class fare would be quite sufficient when we travel on duty with His Highness in an ordinary train.

2) Attention is invited to Mr Macnaghten's D.O. of 7-1-08 at Flag A which clearly stated what the staff allowance was intended to cover. It seems likely that all journeys except those on deputation while not on attendance on H.H. were taken into account. In the two cases cited by the Huzur Secy in which t.a. was sanctioned for journeys in attendance on H.H. the orders were passed in 1917; from this it may be inferred that no such claims were postponed or admitted for nine years.

3) There is no hardship or unreasonableness in a fixed allce being sanctioned to cover travelling allowance for any class of journeys. So, prima facie there is no reason, in my respectful opinion, to change the rule in question. On the other hand no officer should continuously lose in respect of the expenses he has to incur for travelling in connection with his official duties. If therefore a case is now made out and it is shewn that the allowance given does not on the whole cover travelling expenses for all journeys including those which it is now intended to exclude, then there will be reasons for either increasing the allowance or for allowing railway fare for certain classes of journeys -

I think that Mr Macnaghten's D.O. referred to above makes it perfectly clear that the principal object in adopting the system of staff allces was to avoid the necessity of Personal staff officers preparing and submitting t. a. bills for journeys performed while on attendance on H. E. This principle will be broken if the change now proposed is sanctioned - If therefore a case is made out I would rather be in favour of raising the allce than depart from a rule which seems to me to possess advantages from many points of view.

Question of Travelling allowance to officers on the staff of His Highness the Maharaja.

In G.O.Nos Fl.3682-3/S.&A. 355-07-2 dated 27.1.1908 and Fl 1201-5/ S & A 14-14-37 dated 9.9.1915 in which certain staff allowances in lieu of ordinary travelling allowance are sanctioned to officers on the personal staff of His Highness the Maharaja, it is declared that such officers will be permitted to draw travelling allowance under the ordinary rules in addition to staff allowance only in the rare cases when they are deputed on duty otherwise than in attendance on His Highness, to places in British India other than Madras or Ooty.

2. Mr.Mirza M.Ismail, Huzur Secretary, having preferred a claim for travelling allowance for his journey to Poona in September 1917 in attendance on His Highness in an ordinary train, the Comptroller has solicited the orders of Government in the matter of passing the claim in question.

3. The Huzur Secretary has also sent up a note dated 1st February 1918, stating that the order of 1908 prohibiting ordinary travelling allowance to officers in receipt of staff allowances is applicable only to cases where the officers apparently travel in attendance on His Highness in special trains, and that the usual travelling allowances under the M.S.R. or at least a single first class fare may be given in addition to their staff allowance when they travel in attendance on His Highness in ordinary trains to places in British India other than Ooty.

4. The subject was considered in Council on 9.5.1918 and they resolved that the Government order of 1908 may be modified so as to allow ordinary travelling allowances in the case of journeys by ordinary trains outside the State, except to Madras, and Ootacamund, the staff allowance being proportionately reduced for the days spent on such journeys.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that in his Travelling Allowance Bill for September 1917, Mr. Mirza Mohamed Ismail, Huzur Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja, drew Travelling Allowance for his journey to Poona in attendance on His Highness and that, under the authority of Government Order No.1201-5/S.& A.14-14-37 dated the 9th September 1915, the Travelling Allowance of ---- Rs.132-4-0 drawn by him for the said journey was objected to and he was requested to refund it to Government.

In reply to the objection, Mr. Mirza Mahomed Ismail maintains that the Government Order referred to, applies only to --- cases where officers on the staff of His Highness travel in attendance on His Highness presumably in special trains and that the orders are silent as to whether those officers would be entitled to claim Travelling Allowance when they travel in attendance on His Highness in ordinary trains.

I have the honor to enquire whether it is the intention of Government that Travelling Allowance to these officers shoul be passed in addition to staff allowance, when they travel to places in British India other than Ooty and Madras, in ordinary trains though in attendance on His Highness the Maharaja. -- There is no reference to special or ordinary trains on the Government Order under consideration.

Pending the receipt of orders, the recovery of the amounts drawn by the officers will be kept in abeyance.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

THE PALACE,

1st February 1918.

Dear Mr. Hiriyannaiya,

Would you kindly lay the enclosed note re the Staff Allowance sanctioned to us, before the Dewan and with his permission have it dealt with in the usual course?

Yours sincerely,
Mirza M. Ismail

Note re Admissibility of Travelling Allowance to officers on the Staff of His Highness the Maharaja.

When a Staff Allowance of Rs.200 per mensem was sanctioned by Government to Mr. P.Raghavendra Rao, Assistant Private Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja in their Order No.Fl. 3682-3/S & A. 355-07-2 dated 27th January 1908, it was specifically laid down that the said allowance was in lieu of all travelling allowances for journeys within the Province, to Ootacamund or Madras and to other places outside the Province when in attendance on His Highness. It was also laid down in the said Order that in rare cases in which Mr. Raghavendra Rao may be deputed on duty otherwise than in attendance on His Highness the Maharaja to places in British India other than Madras or Ootacamund, he will as a special case be entitled to travelling allowances at the rates admissible under the Mysore Service Regulations in addition to the permanent Staff Allowance sanctioned as above.

The designation of Mr. Raghavendra Rao was changed from Assistant Private Secretary to Huzur Secretary in March 1909 and the same Staff Allowance was continued to him as long as he continued to be borne on the Personal Staff of His Highness. When he was transferred from here as Excise Commissioner, the said Allowance was transferred to the undersigned who succeeded him in Office. (Vide G. O. No. 12299-301/G.M.390-14-1 dated 10th May 1915.) A few months later, G.O.No.Fl. 1201-5/S & A 14-14-37 dated 9th September 1915 was passed extending the principle enunciated in the Order of 1908 to all the officers borne on the Staff of His Highness.

Under the orders referred to above, as they stand, no Travelling Allowance is admissible to Officers on the Personal Staff of His Highness the Maharaja when they travel with His Highness on duty. This is well and good if they travell with His Highness in a Special train as in that case neither they nor the Palace will be put to any expense thereby. But the case is different when they travel with His Highness in an ordinary train. Such a contingency has actually happened more than once within recent years.

First, when in February 1916, Mr.T.Thumboo Chetty Assistant Secretary on the Staff of His Highness went to - Delhi on duty with His Highness in an ordinary train, full Travelling Allowance admissible under the Mysore Service Regulations was claimed by him and the same was duly admitted in Govt. Order No.17039-40/G.M.452-16-29 dated 21st June 1917

Similarly when the undersigned made a journey with His Highness in an ordinary train to Bombay in March 1917, orders of Government were sought regarding the admissibility of full travelling allowance under the Mysore Service Regulations and the claim was duly admitted in Govt. Order No. 14-15/G.M. 452-16, dated 9th June 1917.

On the strength of the two precedents quoted, the undersigned claimed full travelling allowance for the journey made by him in September 1917 with His Highness in an ordinary train from Bangalore to Poona and another of the same kind made by him in October 1917 from Poona to Marmagoa. But both the bills were placed under objection in the Comptroller's Office and the undersigned was asked to refund the amount drawn to Government. In reply to the objection - raised, the undersigned maintained that the order of 9th September 1915 relied upon by the Comptroller's Office applied only to cases where Officers on the Staff of His Highness - travelled in attendance on His Highness presumably in Special Trains and it was quite reasonable to contend that the usual Travelling Allowance under the Mysore Service Regulations - was admissible to them in addition to their Staff Allowance when they travelled in attendance on His Highness in ordinary trains, as the Railway fare had to be paid by themselves.

It is perhaps advisable to make the intention of Government clear on the subject to prevent unnecessary correspondence and dispute in future. It would be rather hard on the Officers on the Staff of His Highness to be compelled to meet the railway fare etc in such cases from out of the Staff Allowance granted to them, particularly when the journey is to places far away from Head Quarters like Poona, Bombay, Delhi, Simla etc. Similarly it would be scarcely fair to saddle the Palace with the expense incurred in such cases. The most reasonable procedure under the circumstances appears to be to pass a fresh Order of Government making it clear that ordinary travelling allowance will be admissible to Officers on the Staff of His Highness when they travel with His Highness in ordinary trains to places in British India other than Ootacamund.

I

One other point also requires to be made clear in this connection. To claim Travelling Allowance for journeys outside the State, sanction of Government is necessary under Article 41 (b) of the Mysore Service Regulations. This appears to be rather a superfluous formality in the case of Officers on the Staff of His Highness. They generally proceed on their journey under the express orders of His Highness and a further order of Government seems not quite essential in their case. An Order of Government was passed recently in which it was ruled that it was unnecessary for Officers on the Staff of His Highness, the Dewan &c., to obtain sanction of Government for drawing Travelling Allowance for journeys to Ootacamund. There is no reason why a similar ruling may not be passed dispensing with the formality of a sanction of Government in the case of journeys made by Officers on the Staff of His Highness to other places also in British India, so long as they certify in the Travelli-
